SCHURTER is continually developing and optimizing its product range. New products of improved quality and innovation are continually being developed. At the same time, certain types of products reach the end of their product life cycles and market demand for them decreases. In the case of the products listed in the Excel file attached with this notice, we regret that production machines or tools no longer allow us to manufacture them in volume. We can continue to produce them in small quantities but are not able to maintain the existing price levels. We therefore must phase them out with immediate effect as of the date of this notice. Please contact SCHURTER for any stock and pricing inquiries for any residual demand you receive.

Again, we regret that this notice could not allow more time for phase out and last time buy. We thank you for your understanding and efforts to support customers as much as possible in transitioning to alternatives. Attached is a cross reference list with links to the phase out product data sheets and the alternative recommendations. We hope that this list can provide some measure of support.

Best Regards,

Nathan Widger
